MEDICINAL.

MISS
MAUD
KENYON.

Of 1533 Orange Street, Los Angeles, Cal., writes: "I had been afflicted with my eyes for over a year with such a dreadful itching and inflammation that I could not use them for anything. Physicians had given me many different remedies which were like using so much water; they measured my eyes for glasses, which I got and wore for some time, but they did not benefit me in the least. My mother desired me to write to Dr. R. V. Pierce and explain the condition of my eyes. I did so, and after following your advice, and using eight bottles of the 'Favorite Prescription,' can say my trouble is entirely cured. I would advise any one so afflicted to try these wonderful medicines. My health was never so good as it is now, and I shall never tire of praising Dr. Pierce's medicines." Sick women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter and secure a specialist's advice free of charge.

In all its stages there should be cleanliness. ELY'S CREAM BALM cleanses, soothes and heals the diseased membrane. It cures catarrh and drives away a cold in the head quickly. "I have been troubled with indigestion for ten years, have tried many things and spent much money to no purpose until I tried Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. I have taken two bottles and gotten more relief from them than all other medicines taken. I feel more like a boy than I have in twenty years." And son Reginald said as did Mr. Riggs.

KING'S CORONATION OATH.

It is understood that the British government has decided that there is no necessity to initiate legislation for the purpose of altering the phraseology of the coronation oath in consequence of the disestablishment of the Irish Church during the late Queen's reign. The oath, it is held, is sufficiently elastic to cover the event which happened. The following is the form used at the coronation, including the questions put by the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the sovereign's answer: Archbishop—Is your Majesty willing to take the oath? King—I am willing. Archbishop—Will you solemnly promise and swear to govern the people of this United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, and the dominions thereunto belonging according to the statutes in Parliament agreed on, and the respective laws and customs of the same? King—I solemnly promise so to do. Archbishop—Will you to the utmost of your power maintain the laws of God, the true religion of the Gospel, and the Protestant reformed religion established by law? And will you maintain and preserve inviolably the settlement of the United Church of England and Ireland, and the doctrine, worship, discipline and government thereof as by law established within England and Ireland, and the territories thereunto belonging? And will you preserve unto the Bishop and clergy of England and Ireland, and to the churches there committed to their charge all such rights and privileges as by law do or shall appertain to them or any of them? King—All this I promise to do. Then advancing to the altar, kneeling upon the cushion placed on the steps and laying his right hand upon the Holy Gospel in the Great Bible, the King takes the coronation oath, saying: "The things which I have here before promised I will perform and keep. So help me God."—[New York Sun.

THE BIG NAVIES.—The relative strength of the six naval powers of the world has been the subject of careful study by the Office of Naval Intelligence, which has just prepared a comprehensive statement of their existing and future fighting forces. The naval tonnage of these powers is far in excess of the entire commercial tonnage of some, and with at least two powers the number of warships now building exceeds the total strength of those navies 10 years ago. An approximate estimate of the money being spent alone on the increase plans by these six powers is placed at nearly $500,000,000, and the amount represented in ships already built could scarcely be calculated. Build and building, the naval tonnage of Great Britain exceeds that of France, Germany and Russia combined, but by a very narrow margin, and that of France, the United States and Germany by even less so. As now ranked Great Britain maintains a large lead over all, both in the existing strength and tons building, with France next. Then comes Russia and behind her the United States, which has displaced Germany and leads her by 3,000 tons displacement. Japan is the sixth naval power, and Italy is supposed to be about the same strength.

THREE MEMORIAL WINDOWS.—The contract has been awarded for three memorial windows to be placed in the Monumental Church Richmond. One will be erected to the memory of Chief Justice John Marshall. The figure will be that of Moses, the law-giver, as he returns from Mount Sinai with the tables of the law in his hands. Another window will be to the memory of George D. Fisher and his two sons, Robert and Edward Fisher. It will present a magnificent figure of the angel of the resurrection. The third window will be a memorial of Bishop Moore. Here will be seen the figure of the Saviour delivering His Sermon on the Mount.

A Testimonial From Old Eng'nd. "I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the best in the world for bronchitis," says Mr. William Savory, of Warrington, England. It has saved my wife's life, she having been a martyr to bronchitis for over six years, being most of the time confined to her bed. She is now quite well." It is a great pleasure to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to publish testimonials of this character. They show that great good is being done, pain and suffering relieved and valuable lives restored to health and happiness by this remedy. It is for sale by Richard Gibson, druggist.

To accommodate those who are partial to the use of atomizers in applying liquids into the nasal passages for catarrhal troubles, the proprietors prepare Cream Balm in liquid form, which will be known as Ely's Liquid Cream Balm. Price, including the spraying tube, 75c. Druggists or by mail. The liquid form embodies the medicinal properties of the solid preparation. Cream Balm is quickly absorbed by the membrane and does not clog up the nostrils, but changes them to a natural and healthy character. Ely Brothers, 59 Warren Street, New York.
